

FURS SACRIFICED.

At $310, one London-dyed Alaska Seal Newmarket, 58 inches long; bust 36.
At $285, one London-dyed Alaska Seal Newmarket, 58 inches long; bust 36.
These garments are worth $500 each, but they are the last two we have and may go at the prices named.

At $80, one London-dyed Alaska Seal Wrap, trimmed in Black Lynx. The regular price was $200.

All our Seal Coats and Sacques at cost.

We are selling any Cloak in our house at cost, and a good many at less.

L. S. AYRES & CO.

Agents for Butterick's Patterns.

Can you think of Having any
Rugs, curtains, scarfs or
Interior adornments
Selected
That
May not be [beauty by
Added unto in worth and Seeing and buying of

EASTMAN, SCHLEICHER & LEE.

CARPETS, DRAPERIES, WALL-PAPER.

The Largest House in the State

BRING in your orders for framing as soon as possible. We are making a specialty of frames for crayon portraits.
Make your own Christmas cards. We will show you how.

H. LIEBER & CO.,

ART EMPORIUM,

33 South Meridian St.

Open until 7 p. m.

NEW BOOKS

NOTRE DAME DE PARIS. By Victor Hugo. Superbly illustrated by Rossi, Bieler and Myr. Each $3.00.
BOYS AND GIRLS OF MARLBOROUGH. By Mary L. Harris. By W. F. Hendon. 4.50
THE STORY OF MUSIC. By W. F. Hendon. 1.25
HEROES OF THE CRUSADES. By M. Douglas. 1.50

THE BOWEN-MERRILL CO.

16 & 18 West Washington St.

The store open every evening this week.

KID GLOVES!
PARTY FANS!
HANDKERCHIEFS!
SILK UMBRELLAS!
And Art Novelties!

WM. HÆRLE'S

4 West Washington St.

THE NEW YORK STORE

[Established 1853.]

OUR GREAT SALE
Of one thousand pieces of
COLORED DRESS GOODS
Continued another week.
ALSO,

We shall give you another week in the sale of E. C. Burt's and Laird, Schober & Mitchell's fine Shoes at $1 less than the regular prices.

PETTIS, BASSETT & CO.

The Sons of Veterans.
Commander-in-chief Griffin, Adjutant-general Bookwalter and Quartermaster-general Homan, of the national organization of the Sons of Veterans, had a stirring reception at Connersville this week. The officers named arrived there last Monday evening, and were received at the depot by the Connersville Post, with the firing of cannon and other salutes. A reception and banquet were given in the evening, in which the G. A. R. posts and Women's Relief Corps joined. The journal of the proceedings of the eighth annual encampment of the Sons has just been published. The reports there made show that the order has now a total membership of 125,000, and that the membership in this State is near 7,000.

Articles of Incorporation.
Articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State yesterday by the College Corner Manufacturing Company, of College Corner. It is formed for the purpose of manufacturing agricultural implements, with a capital stock of $10,000. The Hurlburg Sporting Association, of Porter county, to promote out-door sports and athletic exercises, and the Central Gas Company of Washington township, Hamilton county, with a capital stock of $10,000, were also incorporated.

Masonic Officers Elected.
Keystone Chapter, No. 6, R. A. M., last evening elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Most excellent high priest, Will J. McKee; King, A. R. White; scribe, Chester Bradford; captain, John H. Rice; secretary, Jacob W. Smith.

New parlor goods at Wm. L. Elder's.

MINOR CITY MATTERS.

To-Day's Doings.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH—John Towers, musical entertainment; evening.
TEMPERANCE CONFERENCE—Y. M. C. A. Hall, 10 A. M. and 2 P. M.
PROGRESSIVE UNION OF MINERS and MINE LABORERS—No. 1152 East Washington street, morning and afternoon.
TOMLINSON HALL—Roberts Park Concert, evening.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE—Lyceum Theater Company, "The Wife," afternoon and evening.
PARK THEATER—Frank Linden and Edna Earle; afternoon and evening.
BATTLE OF ATLANTA CYCLOPAMA—Market street, between Illinois and Tennessee streets, day and evening.

Local News Notes.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Frank Bernhart and Mary Banaka, Orlando Marine and Viola May Brown, Henry Miller and Lonisa Eckert.

Personal and Society.

Mrs. C. C. Koerner is visiting at Peoria, Ill.

Miss Maud Landers is entertaining her friend, Miss Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Martz left for Chicago Monday morning, to be gone a week.

Miss Henrietta Bramwell, of Bloomington, Ill., is in the city, visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. N. Lee.

Miss Lottie Wright will return home from St. Mary's of the Woods, Friday, to spend a fortnight.

Messrs. Frank West, from Detroit, and George M. West, of Dayton, will be home to spend the holidays with their parents.

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Allen and Miss Allen have issued invitations for a dancing party Monday evening, Dec. 23, at their home on North Delaware street.

Mrs. John T. Dye has issued cards for a party on Tuesday evening, Dec. 24, for her daughter, Miss Mary Dye, who will return home from school Saturday.

Miss Myla Coburn won the beautiful doll at the Brevet Fete by guessing her name, "Dorothy." Two others guessed it, and drawing resulted in favor of Miss Myla.

To-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock, the exhibition of the art work of the pupils of St. John's Academy will be open to the public. It will continue through Friday and Saturday.

The Knickerbocker Literary Society, of the Indianapolis Institute, gave a pleasant entertainment last night, consisting of music, shadow pantomime and the little play, "The Mouse-trap."

Mr. and Mrs. Zinn, No. 262 North Alabama street, gave a co-Web social Monday evening, in honor of their son's twentieth birthday. There were present six couples, and the evening was spent in social games.

Mr. Charles P. Jacobs, by invitation, addressed the ladies of the Chautauqua Society, last evening, on the "Fruits and Perils of Nourishment in England and France." The address was illustrated by a number of large diagrams and sketches specially prepared for the occasion.

MARINE-BROWN.

A very pretty home wedding occurred last night at the new home of Mrs. J. J. Brown, of Woodruff Place. The bride was their elder daughter, Viola May, and the groom Mr. Orlando Marine, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The ceremony of the Society of Friends was performed by Rev. J. J. Mills, president of Earlham College, in the presence of relatives and friends of both bride and groom. Miss Brown and Mr. Marine were pupils at Earlham, and their acquaintance was begun there. The bride was attended by her sister Caddie and the groom by Mr. S. Lee Hadley. Two little flower girls, Flossie Green and Martha Carter, dressed in pink, preceded the bride. The bride's dress was white crepe albatross and broad silk, made in a queen fashion, and she carried roses. The bridesmaid's dress was of pale blue, and her bouquet was of roses. Miss May Ford, of Chicago, played both Mendelssohn's and the Lohengrin wedding marches, one before and one at the close of the ceremony. The house was prettily decorated with plants, flowers and sunflowers, and with ropes of evergreen. After congratulations were exchanged, refreshments were served, and at 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Marine left for Chicago and Cleveland, where they will visit till Saturday. They will then return here to remain till after Christmas, when they will leave for a short trip before going to their home in Brooklyn. Among the guests from away were Mr. and Mrs. Fugate of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown of Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hadley of Westfield, Mr. W. L. Malone of Chicago, Mr. Frank Griest of New York, Misses Sarah and Mary Evans and Miss Mariana Brown of Richmond, Mr. Frank Brown of Westfield, Prof. C. H. Alard of Terre Haute, Dr. J. R. Harris and daughters of Fountain City, Dr. and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Green and son, Mrs. Griest and daughter of Plainfield and others.

MRS. WINCHESTER'S RECEPTION.

Mrs. W. F. Winchester gave a brilliant reception yesterday afternoon at her home on North Tennessee street, at the corner of Walnut. The hours were from 2 till 4 and from 4 till 6 o'clock, and during that time about one hundred and fifty ladies were present. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Morris Ross, Mrs. John N. Hurty, Mrs. H. C. Newcomb and Mrs. George R. Sullivan. The ladies all wore evening dresses. Mrs. Winchester's costume was a very handsome white point de sole, with a canary satin bordered in gold, front. The angel wings were also lined with canary silk, and a sash, with heavy fringes, completed the costume. The house was tastefully decorated with plants, flowers and trailing vines, and the being lighted made it seem almost like an evening party. In the center of the dining-room was a round table, bordered with suns and flowers, and in its center a beautiful silver banquet lamp. The mantel was filled with rare flowers and their fragrance filled the air. Misses Eloise Morton and Ann Hurty assisted in the refreshment-room and presented the favors—carnations of all colors—from a fancy basket. The company embraced a large number of well-known ladies, and their rich toilets and the charming air of hospitality made the occasion one of the prominent afternoon receptions of the season.

THE RAPID TRANSIT PROBLEM.

Amendments to the Old Street-Railroad Charter in the Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen held a special meeting last night in order to place the amendments to the old street-railroad charter, which were passed by the Council Monday, on their first reading. They did this to avoid suspending the rules next Monday night. The reading of the amendments was the only business transacted. It is possible the Citizens' Street railroad Company will accept the privilege of using electricity, provided for in the amendments, if they are approved by the aldermen. As to that, however, it is believed that much depends upon the decision the Chicago capitalists who own the stock of the company may reach. It is understood that Mr. Shuler is not favorable to an acceptance of the amendments. That gentleman was out of the city yesterday, he having gone to St. Louis, and his exact position in regard to the matter could not be ascertained. But it is urged that as the same capitalists control street-railroad plants in other cities, and are, on most of them, operating electric railways, they may be induced to put the system in on their lines in this city without an extension of their charter. It is believed they may do this to show the benefits of that mode of rapid transit, and thus bring about a demand from the citizens for its extension.

The Insane Asylum Fire Drill.

Superintendent Wright, of the Central Hospital for the Insane, recently gave an exhibition of the fire drill at that institution to some visitors, which showed remarkable proficiency on the part of the officers and attendants and the good training of the patients of the institution. One of the visitors remarked that he had seen the patients of an insane hospital at Napa, Cal., get ready for removal in less than five minutes after the fire-alarm rang, and Dr. Wright said the same thing could be done here in considerably less time. The fire-drill signal was sounded, and in two minutes and fifty seconds all officers and attendants were in the places appointed for them, the hose laid and the fire-engines in position, while the inmates of every ward were gathered in the short halls at the landing of the fire-proof stairs clad in outdoor wraps and ready to descend. The visitors were astonished as much as they were pleased by the exhibition, and in going about the various apartments noted that the patients did not seem to be excited or annoyed by the drill, but rather enjoyed it as a relief from the monotony of their confinement.

THE WRECKED PAY CAR.

Funeral of the Two Railway Officials—An Account of a Witness of the Accident.

The funeral services of the trainmaster, J. M. Cummins, and Superintendent I. H. Wilson, killed, Monday morning, in the accident on the Ohio, Indiana & Western railroad, near Covington, will occur to-day. After a brief service at his late residence, No. 97 West Seventh street, at 9 o'clock this morning, the remains of Mr. Cummins will be taken to Charleston, Ill., for burial. The services attending the funeral of Mr. Wilson will be held at his late residence, No. 757 North Delaware street, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The burial will take place at Crown Hill. The death of Mr. Wilson and Mr. Cummins, and the shocking manner in which it occurred have cast a deep sorrow over their wide circle of friends. By all, heartfelt sympathy is expressed for the bereaved families and everywhere most kindly words are spoken in praise of the many excellent qualities of manhood both gentlemen possessed. None feel their loss more keenly than their associates in business, and yesterday about the offices of the company with which they were connected the mourning was sincere. In obedience to an order of the general manager of the road, Mr. Barnard, the general offices were heavily draped and from all the officials came to the families of the deceased expressions of sympathy accompanied not unfrequently by floral offerings.

A gentleman who was on the pay car at the time of the accident, says that Mr. Wilson and Mr. Cummins were sitting near each other and talking. Mr. Sloan, the roadmaster, was on the opposite side of the car, and when the floor began to rise ran to the front of the car. Mr. Lynn and his assistant were at the pay-counter, and jumping also to the front of the car entered and injured. Mr. Wilson, in being thrown partly through the window, struck his head against the frame-work, and it is thought this killed him instantly. Mr. Cummins, in being thrown out of the car, was caught by one of its steps and carried a long distance. His clothing was torn off him. When Mr. Sloan and Mr. Lynn got out of the car they first supposed Mr. Cummins had jumped out, but going to him, as he lay in the ditch, found that his head was broken, thigh dislocated and skull fractured. The engineer did not know anything had happened until his air-brake showed that the current was broken. He then looked back and saw the car tipped on its side and jumping over the cross-ties. The stove in the car was thrown against the stunted chimney, and the train was broken, caught fire, and its upholstery and that of three other chairs was burned off before the engineer and fireman, with Mr. Sloan's assistance, could extinguish the flames. One of the wheels of the car was found badly broken about 500 feet back from where the train came to a stand. It is stated that the train was not moving more than thirty miles an hour when the accident occurred. Before leaving the yard at West Indianapolis the car was carefully examined, and every wheel and axle seemed to be perfect.

TROTTERING AND PACING ASSOCIATION.

The Movement to Include Indianapolis in a Circuit for the Spring Meetings.

In response to an invitation to consider the matter of arranging for a spring meeting of trotting and pacing horses in this city, a meeting, made up of twenty-five or thirty prominent local horsemen, was held at the Grand Hotel last night. Dr. William Wands was elected chairman, and Frank Walker secretary. The latter said the Indianapolis horsemen had been invited to join a circuit, including Cambridge, Rushville, Edinburg, Columbus and Fort Wayne. The Northwestern Association was full, and Indianapolis could not get a place in it this year, but could probably get the third week in June in the new association. That week would be the one following the close of the season, and Indianapolis could get the same horses entered there, and would have no opposition except from the meeting at Junesville, Wis., which was too far removed to do much damage. A meeting of the managers of the new association is to be held on the 10th of next month, and if Indianapolis wanted to go in, the details could be arranged at that time.

W. L. Higgins suggested the appointment of a committee to confer with one from the new association, but it was agreed that a committee, if appointed, should represent something, and an animated discussion followed as to the best plan for perfecting an organization. It was finally determined to organize an association with a capital stock of $10,000, in shares of $50 each, and Messrs. Hare, Dickinson, Graves, Higgins, W. F. Christian, Thomas F. Carter, Carr, Geo. Pingst and Dr. C. E. Wright were chosen to act as incorporators and directors.

The secretary was directed to call a session of these gentlemen, and such others as were interested in the project, at the Grand Hotel on Saturday evening next, and the meeting adjourned, very much pleased with the success of its initial effort.

No One Knows His Whereabouts.

John R. Myrover, formerly of his city, but who left here to engage in the insurance business at Louisville, has disappeared from that place. An Associated Press dispatch from Louisville states that letters containing money sent him were returned unopened, and inquiry at his boarding-house in that city elicited information that he had been ill and had gone, no one knew where. Reports came back that he was dead, but even these could not be verified.

SEAL SKIN MUFFS AT $10.

BAMBERGER, 16 E. Washington st.

SEAL SKIN CAPS, first quality, from $7.50 to $12. BAMBERGER, 16 E. Washington st.

Personal.

Mr. Harry Gillman, a well-known business man of Terre Haute, yesterday purchased of Bryant & Dierdorf a fine Briggs piano as a present for his wife.

SEAL SKIN GLOVES for ladies and gentlemen at reduced rates. BAMBERGER, 16 E. Washington st.

For the Holidays.

Ladies' and gents' slippers, new and elegant styles; also, patent leather shoes, and all the latest novelties in footwear, at 19 North Pennsylvania st.

One-Fifth Of

On all silk umbrellas and ladies' and gents' furs till Christmas. HATTER and FURRIER.

"Peck's Bad Boy"

Would not have been so bad if the old man could have given him a chest of tools, such as we have on sale—eight different sizes, all good tools and cheap—not bogus ones. Call and get one for the boy for a Christmas present. HILDEBRAND & FUGATE, 32 S. Meridian st.

THE "KEYSTONE" CULINARY BEATER.

We have them. Valuable cook-book free with each beater. "Charter Oak" with the wonderful wire-guns even door, "M. & D." wrought steel sauce, Gas stove, "M. & D." furnaces, Wood and slate mantels. W. M. H. BENNETT & SON, 38 South Meridian st.

THE HAPPY THROG
our store these days, and each one finds something; for from diamonds—dear as diamonds are—to tasteful devices in silver, sterling or plated ware, we have something in the way of use and beauty to suit all desires and abilities.

Bingham & Walk

BOSTON STORE

We have marked down about 200 garments in our

CLOAK DEPARTMENT

Ladies', Misses' and Children's, that we desire to sell AT ONCE.

LARGE LINE OF HOLIDAY GOODS

ON SALE.

BUY DOLLS HERE

JACKSON, PORTER & ALDERMAN

BEFORE 1396, B. C.

Was issued Chinese "greenbacks" bearing, among other inscriptions, this laconic exhortation to industry and thrift: "Produce all you can; spend with economy." In 1880, A. D., we exhort you in the same strain.

We are selling choice Cloaks and Wraps at prices less than those quoted by any other house in Indiana.

If you would "spend with economy" in Furs, we would be pleased to give you the choice from a very fine line.

In Dress Goods we give an opportunity to follow the Chinese exhortation: "Produce all you can; spend with economy." We can let you do even more. We offer you goods at the factory prices.

In goods suitable for gifts we are showing a fine line. Mullers, Silk Handkerchiefs, Fine Embroidered Linen Handkerchiefs in fancy boxes, up to $4 each; Plated Jewelry, Lace Ties, Stamped Linen pieces, Fine fancy Table and Bed Covers, Linen Spreads, Tidies and a hundred other articles.

Open evenings, and as light as day.

W. C. Van Arsdel & Co.,

109 and 111 South Illinois Street.

PLUSH CLOAKS

44 inches long, four real Alaska seal ornaments, elegantly lined, and the best Seal Walker Plush (warranted to wear), $25.

Compare this with any $35 or $40 Cloak in America. See this Cloak.

RINK'S

THE ONLY CLOAK HOUSE,

30 and 32 North Illinois Street.

N. B. We repair all kinds of garment.

SPECIAL SALE.

Walnut Suits, Marble Top, $25, worth $35. Ash Suits for $18, worth $22. Walnut and Oak Secretaries, $25, worth $30. Oak Book-Cases, $12, worth $15. All-wool Carpets, 65c, worth 75c. Cotton Churns, 50c, worth 60c. Tapestry Brussels, 65c, worth 75c. Body Brussels, $1, worth $1.10. Velvet Brussels, $1.15, worth $1.25. Moquettes, $1.50, worth $1.75.

These goods are all first-class and the latest designs out. This sale will last for November and December.

Sold on payments or cash.

New York Furniture and Carpet Co.,

40 South Meridian St.,

One-half square south of Washington st.

PROGRAMME

State Fish and Game Convention

Thursday, Dec. 19, 1889.

1. 12 m. Convention meets.

2. Organization.

3. Welcome Address, His Excellency, Gov. Hovey.

4. Order of Business.

5. 3 p. m. Address on Fishes of Indiana, by Prof. Jordan.

6. 7 p. m. Evening Session for General Business.

7. Exhibition of Specified Trout by Baker Bros., Rome City.

8. Convention is called by W. T. DENNIS, Fish Commissioner, Richmond, Ind.

Christmas Books and Novelties

Lowest possible prices for best quality of goods.

CATHCART, CLELAND & CO.,

26 East Washington Street.

KREGELO, UNDERTAKER.

Hacks to Crown Hill, $2.50. Southern Yards, $3.

Free Ambulance.

W. T. WILEY & CO

48 and 50 North Illinois Street.

ATTEND OUR GREAT CLOSING-OUT SALE TO-DAY

4,000 Handkerchiefs at 1c, 2c, 3c, 4c, 5c, 7c, 9c, 12c, 15c, 19c and 23c; worth fully one-half more. 500 Ladies' fine Initial Handkerchiefs, all letters, only 9c; worth 25 cents. 300 all-silk Brocaded Handkerchiefs, large size, only 24c; worth 50c. Fancy Mullers at 18c; worth 25c. Silk and Cashmere Mullers at half price. Wonderful bargains to-day in Dress Goods, Silks, Cloaks, Plush Sacques, Underwear, Table Linen, Towels, Napkins, Sheetings, Fancy Goods and Notions.

WE ARE POSITIVELY GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

Secure your Holiday Presents at the reduced prices before our stock is broken.

Open every night this week.

W. T. WILEY & CO

48 and 50 North Illinois Street.

THE NEW SCALE UPRIGHT

KURZMANN PIANOS

Are attracting much attention among the MUSICIANS of this city.

BRYANT & DIERDORF

Are displaying a variety of these and other first-class

Pianos at their Warerooms,

58 & 60 North Pennsylvania St.

THIS WEEK ONLY.

Overcoats don't go very well this kind of weather, and as we have quite an overstock of them, we will offer for NEXT WEEK ONLY the choice of any Chinchilla Overcoating in our house, made to your order, for $25. Remember that these goods are made and trimmed better, and will give better satisfaction than any coat offered by any moderate-price Tailoring House in the city, as we do nothing but first-class work.

A. COHEN & SON,

Merchant Tailors,

32 West Washington Street, News Building.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS

Buy Useful as well as Ornamental Gifts—

Fancy Rockers, Music Cabinets, Tables, Easels and Screens

See my immense stock.

WM. L. ELDER,

43 and 45 South Meridian Street.

No dish of OYSTERS is quite up to perfection without

BRYCE'S BUTTER CRACKERS

INDIANA PAPER COMPANY, Manufacturers,

News, Book, Manila, Straw and Box Wrapping Paper, Paper Bags and Flour Sacks. Send for prices.

21 to 25 East Maryland Street.

The paper upon which the JOURNAL is printed is made by this Company.

JOHN WOCHER.